At the annual memorial meeting of Lee Camp in Richmond last night, Hon. John Goode, president of the constitutional convention was the principal speaker. He is one of the four surviv-ors of the convention, that met there in February, 1861, and the only Virginian living who was a member of the Cou-ederate Congress.

Mr. Goode took occasion to correct what be conceives to be two errors in recent contributions to the history of the civil war. He stated that he had it from the lips of the Confederate commissioners who went to Hampton Roads to confer with President Lincoln that the only thing that Lincoln would agree to was that the Confederates "should go home and take off their uniforms." He denied in emphatic terms that Lincoln had offered to pay for the lib-eration of the slaves. Only a very short time ago the Rev; Dr. Green, a celebrated Presbyterian minister of Danville. Ky., and a Confederate veteran, delivered a lecture in which be said Lincoin had offered to pay for the slaves. Dr. Green said he THE CLEANSING

ATTACK DAUGHTERS OF CONFED ERACY .- The students of the Medical department of Grant University at Chattanooga, Tenn., in mass meeting on Thursday by unanimous rising vote asked the trustees of the university to dispense with the services of Rev. R. J. Cooke, professor of historical theology, for his attack on the Daughters of the Confederacy in a religious paper.

When Dr. Cooke entered the mess hall, while the students were at supper, he was loudly hissed. Grant University is under the control of the Southern Educational Society and the Freed-men's Aid Society of the Northern Methodist church. The editorial in-question compared the Daughters of the Confederacy to Emma Goldman and Herr Most and charged them with teaching treason.

The law students of Grant University adopted a resolution which declares;
"The article appearing to Dr. Cooke' paper is sliegether out of accord and not in sympathy with the sentiments of the law students and the article is bereby condemned and altogether unjust, and forther, we believe that the law department about not be consured. for the utterances of an individual not in any way connected with this depart-

THE NEW YORK TRIBUNE comes pretty THE NEW YORK TRIBUNE comes pretty near being an ideal rewapsper. It is clean without being dull, enterprising without being consultonal, and as fair and accurate as human forethought and care can make it. THE TRIBUNE has positive convictions of its own on all the great questions of the day, but it is broad enough and liberal enough to give all reasonal opportunity to "hear the other side.

it is broad enough and liberal enough to give all reasonal opportunity to "hear the other side.

Every occurrence or development of smflicient importance to engage the attention of self respecting, intelligent people is sure to find adequate treatment in THE TRIBUNE, by text or picture, or both.

What is true of The Daily Tribane applies with force, though in medified form, to the other publications issued from The Tribune office. THE TRIBUNE WEEKLY REVIEW, issued every Saturday, or ables persons living in the small towns or villages to keep in touch with the beet thought of the nation, just as well as those at the educational centres. It records and reviews all the essential happenings of the week—the things that count in making up the ledger of progress. For sending to friends abroad you cannot find anything better.

THE TRIBUNE FARMER is, as its namo implies, devoted to the interests of farmers and their families. It is meant to be their friend, adviser and helper in the fullest meaning of the words, bringing to them all the available facts and information calculated to sid them. And special care is taken to provide interesting reading matter for the women and young folks. $1 a year.
